Merchants Praise Dollar Days; C of C Plans Steak Dinner Feb. 28

Merchants who participated in the first annual Campbell Dollar Days last weekend voiced general approval of the event and called for further planning along this line. Chairman Milton Nelson announced at the Chamber of Commerce board of directors' meeting this week. The 23 merchants expressed satisfaction with the results and suggested that another Dollar Days weekend be calendared within the near future.

Such comments as "excellent results," "the best three days I have had since I opened this business," "best promotional stunt to date," and "I'm happy over the results," were issued by local merchants. One women's wear shop reported the Dollar Days doubled the business record for any three comparable days in the shop's history.

Cost per merchant for the co-operative promotional campaign was only $7.45.

February general meeting of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will be a steak dinner on February 28 at Martin's, Campbell Avenue and San Jose-Los Gatos Road. Cost per person will be $2. The dinner will be informal. All members, their wives and other persons interested in work of the chamber are invited to attend. Reservations are limited to 50 persons. Arrangements should be made immediately with either Reese, Campbell 3303 or 3442, or E. W. Barnes, Campbell 3442. A special speaker has been scheduled.

Mrs. E. J. Nelson was a guest at the meeting and asked support of the Chamber in the current fund drive of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. Directors promised their support in arrangements to have a guide dogs exhibit here next week.

Other matters discussed were the proposed whiteway and a membership drive.

Secretary-manager Forrest A. Reese announced that the street sweeper program is under way. Business district streets have been swept twice by the machine, and the area has taken on a cleaner appearance. He asked merchants' cooperation in sweeping up sidewalk rubbish, rather than pushing it into the street.

Brother Of Forrest Reese Missing In Boat Capsizing Off Golden Gate

Warrant Officer Warren S. Reese, 39, brother of Forrest A. Reese of White Oaks Avenue, Campbell, was one of the six Army men reported missing after an Army tugboat "T-6", capsized Saturday about 2:30 p. m. off the Golden Gate.

According to survivors' statements, the 64-foot tug rolled over when a sudden wave struck it. Forrest Reese reported that at the investigation hearing on the accident, one of the rescuers, Lloyd A. Lundstrom, owner and skipper of the yacht, "Aloyd", said that although the tide was rushing out of the Gate, the wave which struck the boat traveled toward it from the rear at a 30-degree angle. The boat was headed in after a fishing expedition, and had been traveling toward the waves off the Gate.

Lundstrom, who witnessed the capsizing, was praised for his efficiency in saving five of the 14 survivors. In the 20 minutes it took Lundstrom's yacht to reach the scene, the currents had separated some of the survivors by more than a mile, Reese learned. Lundstrom directed two fishing boats to the scene by radio, one of which, the Jerry II, rescued five men, and the other, four more.

W/O Reese's family, including his wife, Dorothy, and daughter, Joan, 9, live in Washington, D.C. Besides his brother, Forrest, he was the brother of Joseph Reese of Long Beach, Clyde Reese of Toledo, Ohio, Mrs. Ida Welch of Bedford, Virginia; Mrs. Mabel Rasmussen of Dayton, Ohio; Miss Frances Reese of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Nellie Blosser of Portsmouth, Virginia.

CO-OP DRYER ELECTS OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEET

Five directors were re-elected at the annual meeting of the Campbell Cooperative Dryer January 29 at the Campbell Elementary School auditorium. Those returned to office are E. W. Bucknall, president; William M. Cilker, vice-president; Robert Scholz, secretary; J. B. Benson and Joseph V. Gomes.

According to the financial and operating cost statements, cost of drying French prunes during the 1950 season was only $7.79 per ton, considerably less than the cost for dehydration on growers' ranches.

The local plant, still the largest cooperative dehydrating plant, having 48 tunnels, dehydrated over 850 tons last season. Directors report receipt of numerous membership inquiries from non-member growers.

REV. C. H. OLDS TELLS KIWANIANS OF HUDSON'S BAY

Rev. Corwin H. Olds presented an historical account of the world's oldest corporation when he spoke before the Campbell Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon on the Hudson's Bay Company. Rev. Olds, minister of the Campbell Congregational Church, spent many years in Canada shortly after the turn of the century, and through his careers there, acquired first hand knowledge of the pioneer trading company and its territory.

The trapper, now minister, told of the men who founded the great company which, at one time, owned as a free grant from England more than half the entire area of the present Dominion of Canada.

In his talk, which illustrated a complete knowledge of his subject, Rev. Olds gave details of the vast territory served by the company, its merchandising practices and the great variety of enterprises, including merchandising, trapping, retailing and even land sales, in which the company is active.

Rev. Olds exhibited articles of wearing apparel which he brought with him from the north lands, including a marten parka and cap and leather moccasins for arctic travel.

Guests at the meeting were Bill Balch, Los Gatos Kiwanian, Dick Bear, Dr. Willard Morrell who opened offices for general practice of medicine in Campbell this week, Mitchell Slosilo and Gilda Mazanti, Campbell High School student guest for the day.

dent, and J. Fletner, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made to enter a float in the February 22 Old Settlers' Day parade, after which members enjoyed a social hour. Several women who are interested in the club served cakes and coffee. They promised a full cookie jar for Old Settlers' Day.

The pioneer Club recently lost, by death, two of its members, William Truax and George Dahms. "We wish to state that we will still carry on and maintain the same high standards under which we have always run the club," the members stated.

They extended an invitation to any man, regardless of age, who wishes to spend an occasional hour in good, clean entertainment, at cards, checkers and, later on, horseshoes. Prospective members are invited to drop in at the clubhouse and get acquainted.

LOUISE ROBSON SUCCUMBS AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Louise Robson, for many years a resident of this community, died Saturday, February 3, at her home here, 580 E. Campbell Avenue, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Robson suffered a fall last summer which later caused spinal complications. The daughter of a Methodist minister, she was born in West Hartlepool, England. She and her husband, Mr. George S. Robson, came to California shortly after the turn of the century, living first in southern California, then moving to Campbell.

In this community she was an active member of the Country Woman's Club of Campbell, and was a leading member of the Congregational Church where she sang in the choir for many years. Mrs. Robson was well known here as an accomplished musician, and served as an accompanist for singers at local recitals. In addition to her church and club activities, she was, for some time, a correspondent for the San Jose Mercury-Herald.

Funerals services were conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Amos O. Williams Funeral Chapel in San Jose. The Rev. Corwin H. Olds of the Campbell Congregational church officiated at both the chapel and graveside services. Mrs. Ray Martin was the vocalist for the funeral services. Interment was at Los Gatos Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Roy G. Archibald, A. E. Brydon, William L. Harrison, William N. Lloyd, E. C. Merrill and David A. Sanders.

Mrs. Robson leaves her husband, George S. Robson; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Joyce Stray of Chino; two sons, Dr. George Bernard Robson and Dr. Philip Gordon Robson, both of San Francisco; two grandsons, Walter George and Philip Douglas Stray, both of Chino; sisters, Mrs. Erik Muhr, Mrs. Matthew May, Mrs. Thomas Hetherington, all of England, and Mrs. George Cook, now visiting in Campbell, and two brothers, Stanley and William Blenkinsop, both of England.

Junior Chamber of Commerce members will repeat their pancake and sausage concession this year. This time it will be at the high school cafeteria from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. Price will be 75c per person. Coffee will be served, and several distributors will be on hand to give out samples.

Since the whiskerino contest got off to a late start, emphasis will be placed on style and variety, rather than amount of whisker growth, during the judging.

Three generations of the Campbell family will be represented at the festivities. These will be Mrs. Jessie Campbell, queen of Old Settlers' Day, her son from Berkeley and his child.

The noonday meal, to be served from 11:45 a. m. to 12:45 p. m. in the Campbell Grammar School cafeteria, is open to all comers at 50c per person. Neal Royer is chairman, assisted by Florence Fuller and Dave Sanders.

All persons, whether or not they plan to march in the parade, are urged to attend in costume, preferably in costume carrying out the colonial days theme of this year's observance. Those marching in the parade will be eligible for the costume prize awards.

George Kemp, souvenir program chairman, said today his committee has sold about $400 in ads for the program. Merchants who purchase advertisements in the program will help defray cost of the program printing, since the booklets are to be distributed without charge to the public. Ad sales will also provide funds for purchase of trophies and awards for parade winners.

ROTARY CLUB GETS CURRENT NEWS OF LUMBER INDUSTRY

The lumber industry in this country is in far better shape to carry on its part in a war than it was in 1939, Emerson Arends Jr. of the Campbell Lumber Company told local Rotarians Monday noon. Although he hesitated to predict the future of the industry, Arends said production is greatly increased and the over all picture is encouraging. The speaker termed 1950 one of the biggest years for the industry, due to the heavy industrial and home building programs.

Distribution costs, he added, have risen by 20 percent since the beginning of the Korean conflict. Locally, the lumber company contends with a difference in freight rates between Campbell and San Jose. Although San Jose has a rate of 38c per 100 pounds, Campbell's rate is 50c per 100 pounds. Lumber grading is not a government proposition, he pointed out. This is carried out under the West Coast Lumber Association supervision.

Mario Saia, chairman for the day, introduced the speaker. Next week, chairman Cliff Cassidy has arranged for showing of a film on Guide Dogs for the Blind. A trio composed of Cel Gerevas, Saia and Hans Hansell sang a number for the gathering.

Collector Of Internal Revenue Tells About Rules, Regulations In Filing

(Editor's Note.) This is the first in a series of articles prepared by the Collector of Internal Revenue, James G. Smyth of the First California District outlining rules and regulations governing the preparation and filing of 1950 Federal Income Tax returns.

For the average individual, the basic rules and regulations for the preparation and filing of income tax returns under the new income tax act of 1950 are practically the same as last year.

The most important income tax provisions of the new act may be classified as, Revenue, Remedial, and Relief. The Revenue provisions will produce more tax dollars; the Remedial provisions are designed primarily to correct abuses and block loopholes in the preparation and filing of corporation returns and the Relief provisions will tend to alleviate the impact of taxation under certain conditions.

The majority of taxpayers will be concerned in the Revenue provisions of the new tax bill.

Effective on 1950 earnings, the majority of taxpayers will find their tax liability has increased approximately five percent.

This increase is accounted for by decreasing the amount of tax reduction on the sur-tax. The new reduction from the tentative tax is: 13 percent on the first $400, plus 9 percent on the tax in excess of $400, but under $100,000, and 7.3 percent on the tax over $100,000.

The personal exemption allowance of $600 for each individual remains the same.

Every individual who received $600 of taxable income in 1950, must file a return by March 15.

No additional calculation will be required in determining the tax liability in filing 1950 income tax returns because of the new tax law. The increase in taxes has been accounted for by cutting down the reductions from the "tentative" tax for 1950.

Beginning January 1, 1951, under the present law, there will be no tax reduction. Any individual or corporation whose fiscal year begins on or after October 1, 1950, will receive no deduction from the "tentative" tax.

Single persons or married couples receiving income of less than $5,000 all subject to withholding tax may prepare their income tax on the Form 1040-A. All the taxpayer is to do on this type of return is: (1) Print their name or names and address in the box at the top; (2) Check the boxes for age; (3) List the names and addresses of dependents; (4) List names and addresses, amount withheld and amount received from all employers; and (5) Sign and date the return. If it is a return of a married couple, both must sign.

Mail the return to the Collector of Internal Revenue. In San Francisco, the address is 100 McAlister street. The Internal Revenue determines the tax. They will send you a bill if more tax is due, or a refund if your tax is overpaid.

Taxpayers in this category may elect to use the short form 1040. In using this form, the taxpayer determines the tax from the table on the back of the form. If additional tax is due, it must be paid at the time the return is filed. If the tax is overpaid, they must check how they wish the overpayment treated; whether refunded to them or applied to future taxes. The tax table is based on the new tax rates and allows approximately ten percent for deductions.

CINDER CHAT . . . With the arrival of several truck loads of loam from Half Moon Bay, the Campbell high track is currently having a facial of sawdust and dirt.

Cinder Coach Junior Morgan with the help of Jim Muir, grid mentor, is supervising a crew of eight student athletic managers in the laying and spreading of the various ingredients necessary in making the local oval one of the best in the Valley league.

With the high jump pit refilled with a non-abrasive sawdust and the broad jump pit scheduled to follow suit shortly, the group of ten is now spreading the loam over the entire running surface.

Once this special dirt is distributed, the track then will be disced down two inches and raked by hand to remove any belligerent wads of loam.

Morgan said that the drainage system will be revamped outward so the flow of excess water will drain faster and quicker.

But before the discing and raking is done the track must be absolutely dry and rid from moisture. A week of rain-free weather should do the trick, Morgan said.

While on the subject of track, the Buc coach said that he has now about 140 men out for the sport, by far a record turnout.

That is rather remarkable when one considers that there are approximately 550 boys going the CUHS.

With only less than a week of preliminary warmups under their collective sweat shirts, Morgan said, "Naturally it's too early to say anything regarding my team potential but by watching the boys this week many prospects loom brightly."

STUDENT SUPPORT . . .

Last Saturday night Bert Robinson and Morgan played in the San Jose State college Varsity-Alumni basketball game at Spartan gym.

We should say that only Morgan played, for Robinson was forced to remain in street clothes due to an aching back. But the Buc cage coach directed the "oldsters" from the bench.

Since he captained the Spartan quint in 1946, Robinson was one of the 13 former leaders honored individually at halftime.

When Tiny Hartranft, SJS director of PE, introduced him, Robinson received the largest hand of them all. Not that the fans were partial to him but it so happened that a group of Buc students came to see their two coaches in action, and when Robbie walked on the floor the noise and applause increased accordingly.

Although the Alumni lost, after putting up a close first half when their stamina and wind prevailed, Morgan, acquitted himself creditably by scoring five points and playing good backboard ball.

MEN OR MICE . . . While speaking of State let's give a few accolades to a quintet of Campbell lads who are burning up the SJS Intramural Basketball League.

Playing under the auspicious monicker of "The Mice," the local five is better known in local sports circles as the Campbell Hardware team of the B loop of the Senior League.

Five of the hardware group are attending State, thus being eligible to play in Coach Bill Perry's Intra-class tourney.

Undefeated in four games and winning all contests by overwhelming scores makes the Mice a team to be feared.

Playing for the cheese-sounding club are Ron Cantoni, Dan Estrada, John Oldham, Paul Lipari, and Buzz Freitas.

In their most recent jaunt in the college league the Mice barely squeaked by the Fearless Fairies by the score of 82 to 28. It was such a close contest that the outcome wasn't decided until after the first two minutes of play.

Incidentally, Estrada figures heavily in Frosh Coach Don Bryant's track plans. The erstwhile Buc athlete already is the second best pole vaulter on the Spartan squad and is expected to handle much of the broadjumping chores this spring.

The scheduled meet between Campbell high and the State Frosh next month should prove interesting as a natural rivalry has developed. Morgan, fresh from State, will try to get off on the right track foot in his first cinder meet while Estrada aims to retaliate against his alma mater.

Job's Daughters To Convene For Initiation

Honored Queen Janet Coombs and her corps of officers will welcome Mrs. Mary Johnson, deputy grand guardian of the Order of Job's Daughters, and guardian of Bethel 3 of San Francisco.

Three new members will be initiated into the order: Barbara Harrison, Judith Bohnett and Sue Coffin.

Jose State college halfback, is foregoing another year of eligibility at Spartaville to enter medical school this spring. He has not decided between St. Louis or Stanford as yet.

Campbell Grapplers Roll Fremont, 24-19

George Miskulin's Campbell mat team established itself as a strong contender for SCVAL honors by defeating a potent Fremont high squad, 24 to 19 Friday afternoon in the Buc gymnasium.

Fremont, defending Valley champs, won five matches as Campbell captured but four with two ending in draws. But all the Indian wins were by decisions whereas the Bucs were credited with four pins. High school scoring gives three points for decisions and five for pins.

RESULTS

103 lbs.—Palmer (F) dec. Blue, 112—Vossler (C) pinned Toney, 120—Barton (C) drew, 128—Farnham (C) pinned James, 138—P. Lara (F) dec A. Lopez, 145—Cadena (C) pinned Nobles, 154—Stepovich (C) pinned Cold, 165—E. Lara (F) dec. Lynes, 175—Boltman (F) dec. David, Hwyt—Porter (C) drew with Soso.

Valley Mat Tourney To Be Held In Local Gym Next Saturday

The SCVAL Championship Wrestling Tournament, one of the best mat attractions in local high school circles, will once again be held at Campbell high Saturday, Feb. 17.

A total of 77 grapplers representing seven Valley schools will vie for individual and team championships.

According to George Miskulin, Buc mat mentor, elimination matches will be held in the afternoon with the finals set for the evening. The evening program is scheduled to start at approximately 7:30 o'clock.

The affair marks the second consecutive year that Campbell has been selected as host. Last fall the tourney proved such a success that the league fathers agreed to return.

A slight admission fee will be charged, Miskulin said. As yet, the exact price has not been determined.

A large crowd, similar to last year's, is expected to watch the following teams compete for the team title now held by Fremont high: Los Gatos, San Jose Tech, James Lick, Santa Clara, Gilroy, Campbell, and Fremont.

The Gilroy Mustangs are pre-tourney favorites on the basis of their early season showing. Last month they captured the Second Annual Gilroy Invitational Meet with practically the same schools participating. Campbell did not send a team down, Miskulin said.

The other three apparently strong squads are the Santa Clara Panthers, Fremont Indians and the Bucs.

The winner of each weight division will receive a gold medal with the runner-up getting a silver medal. According to high school mat rules, 11 weight classifications are required, ranging from 103 lbs. to the unlimited class, or the heavyweights.

Miskulin said that entertainment will be provided between matches.

Local Gridders May Add Menlo To Sked

Coach Jim Muir announced yesterday that he is negotiating with Menlo School for Boys for a possible grid date this fall.

Menlo, a private school, does not belong to any league but plays a strong schedule. If these tentative plans formulate the meeting between the two teams will be the first in history.

The proposed football game with Santa Cruz high apparently has gone up in smoke, Muir said. In contacting Campbell, the coast school desired that the two lightweight teams play also.

Campbell was unable to comply since the Buc 30's meet Los Gatos on the date set for the Santa Cruz-Campbell varsity contest.

DO'S AND DON'TS FOR SAFETY

Atomic Blast Need Not Be Fatal

(In this column is concluded the publication of the U. S. Government's booklet, "Survival Under Atomic Attack.")

To remove radioactive wastes, scrub your body thoroughly. You also should manage to take a bath or shower if you have been in an area of lingering radioactivity. It is important that all radioactive materials be removed as soon as possible from your body, and bathing is the only practical means of getting rid of them. You won't need special cleaning compounds. Warm water and soap are ideal.

In washing, pay particular attention to your hair, for that is one place where the wastes are sure to pile up. Also give your hands a good scrubbing and get all dirt from under your fingernails. If there is a radiological defense man handy, have him check you with his meter after you've finished your clean-up. Should he find your body still radioactive, again scrub yourself from head to foot. Then do it a third time if necessary. You can remove practically all of the radioactivity if you keep at it.

Remember all this is necessary only for persons who have come in contact with radioactive materials in heavily contaminated areas.

WHAT ABOUT RADIOACTIVITY IN THE HOUSE?

A few simple steps will go a long way toward keeping your house from being contaminated by lingering radioactive wastes scattered about in some bombings. As a rule, it is far easier to prevent radioactive pollution of a household than it is to remove it.

Keep all windows and doors closed until it is officially reported that there is no pollution in the neighborhood.

Keep all windows and doors closed for a least several hours after an atomic bombing. In fact, better leave them shut until civil defense authorities pass the word that there is no lingering radioactivity in your neighborhood. Should you get an official report that there is serious contamination in the vicinity, better cover all broken windows with blankets or cardboard.

Close fireplace dampers and shut off ventilating fans and air conditioners.

Whenever there is widespread neighborhood pollution, it will be impossible to keep your house absolutely free of it. A little is bound to seep in through cracks or else down the chimney. (By all means close the dampers in fireplace flues and shut off air conditioners and ventilating fans not equipped with special filters). Unless you are careful, some radioactivity is likely to be tracked in by people or pets. Keep your cat or dog indoors. And when you come in from outside, leave your shoes at the door, for their soles are likely to be covered with radioactive dusts. Better still, wear rubbers, galoshes or other disposable foot coverings over your shoes. There isn't much chance really dangerous amounts will pile up in the house.

Launder contaminated objects in special buckets or tubs.

Should you help to clean up a contaminated area, you might get some radioactive materials on both your body and clothing. So don't go home and sit around in your work clothes. Take off your outer garments outdoors or in the basement. Then wash, if you can, using warm water and plenty of soap. Never fail to launder your working clothes, but don't use the family washing machine. Scrub all contaminated objects in buckets or tubs used for that purpose only.

WHAT ABOUT FOOD AND WATER?

Watch out for food contamination after ground or water bursts.

To prevent harm from accidentally eating or drinking radioactivity, throw out all unpackaged foods that were lying around where dust from ground bursts or mist from underwater bursts might have settled on them. And before opening canned or bottled goods, wash the outside of the containers thoroughly. That will remove most of the pollution that may have gotten on them. Also be sure that all cooking utensils and tableware are scrubbed clean in order to remove any invisible, radioactive dusts. Food and utensils that were in closed drawers or tight cupboards will be all right.

If it was an air burst, don't worry about the food in the house. It will be safe to use.

Water in the pipes of your house at the time of explosion will not be radioactive.

Be careful of drinking water after atomic explosions. There is little or no chance that water actually inside household pipes at the time of attack will be made radioactive. If a little is drawn off right after the burst and placed in clean containers with covers, it should tide you over the immediate post-burst period.

Boil water before drinking unless you've been officially told it is safe.

But even if the water continues running, don't keep on using tap water for drinking purposes unless you have received official information that the city system is safe. This is not only because of radioactivity, but because of other dangers like typhoid that can come from damaged water systems. If you have to use city water before you get official information, boil it. Boiling won't remove radioactivity, but the chances that your water supply will be radioactive are pretty slim. Boiling will kill most germs that may get into damaged water mains.

WHAT ABOUT RADIOS AND TELEPHONES?

Even though your telephone may continue to work, use it only for true emergencies.

Neither explosive nor lingering radioactivity has any effect on the operation of most mechanical or electrical devices. Unless the wires are down or there is a power failure, both your lights and telephone should continue to work. But don't rush to the phone just to find out how Aunt Susie may have weathered the attack. Leave the lines open for real emergency traffic.

The bomb's radioactivity will not interfere with the operation of your radio. In the event of attack, be sure to turn it on. It may be your main source of emergency instructions. And don't forget: Battery-operated portable sets, including those installed in automobiles, will continue to work even if the city power goes off.

Television reception, like radio, won't be jammed by radioactivity.

WHAT ABOUT AUTOMOBILES?

Keep the family car off the street. Radioactivity will not interfere with its operation.

One more household suggestion: In times of emergency don't park the family automobile on the street. Leave the way clear for emergency traffic. Keep the windows rolled up to prevent possible contamination of the interior by underwater or ground bursts and don't worry whether or not it will run. Radioactivity won't interfere with operation of its fuel or ignition system.

WHAT ABOUT CHILDREN?

Everything in this booklet applies to all members of the family.

Everything in this booklet holds true for all members of the family, including children, old people, or shut-ins. It would be a good idea to talk over the facts with all members of the family to be sure each understands.

You may be sure that, in times of emergency, all schools will be well organized for the protection of children.

Children old enough to understand can be taught to do the right things. Younger children simply have to depend on their parents.

TO SUM UP

Blast and heat are the greatest dangers you face.

To sum up, always remember that blast and heat are the two greatest dangers you face. The things that you do to protect yourself from these dangers usually will go a long way toward providing protection from the explosive radioactivity loosed by atomic explosions.

While the lingering radioactivity that occasionally follows some types of atomic bursts may be dangerous, still it is no more to be feared than typhoid fever or other diseases that sometimes follow major disasters. The only difference is that we can't now ward off with a shot in the arm; you must simply take the known steps to avoid it.

Keep your head. Don't touch off a panic that may cost your life.

If you follow the pointers in this little booklet, you stand far better than an even chance of surviving the bomb's blast, heat, and radioactivity. What's more, you will make a definite contribution to civil defense in your community, because civil defense must start

Sales Tax of 1% Would Give State Over 7 Million

A one percent retail sales tax in Santa Clara county, levied county-wide on the same basis as the present state sales tax, would produce $3,013,000 in one year, California Taxpayers' association estimated today.

Estimate is based on taxable sales in the county from October 1, 1949, through September 30, 1950, when they totalled $301,261,000.

Property tax levy in the county for county general purposes for the current fiscal year amounts to $7,210,546—so that the revenue from a one percent sales tax would be equal to 42 percent of the county property tax levy for 1950-51, the association pointed out.

Throughout California, a one percent retail sales tax levied in the counties would bring in $117,397,000 in a year. This would be equal to 39 percent of the $303,781,966 property tax levied for with you. But if you lose your head and blindly attempt to run from the dangers, you may touch off a panic that will cost your life and put tremendous obstacles in the way of your Civil Defense Corps.

Summer Session At State College Opens June 25

Courses that run the gamut from organizations and operation of a school band to how to paddle your own canoe will be taught at the 1951 summer session of San Jose State College, Dean Raymond M. Mosher announces. The session will be one of the longest in the history of the college, beginning county purposes for 1950-51. City, school, and other district levies are not included.

Pointing out that California Taxpayers' Association makes no recommendation concerning types of taxes, the association said:

"Proposals have been made for a one percent sales tax in counties.

"The tax burden on the American people and on the people of California is at a present size by addition through the years of a few cents of tax rate here and a percent or so of tax there.

"With the need for heavier federal taxes to pay for armament, taxpayers should seriously question any new scheme to increase taxes for state or local government purposes. Instead, the drive should be for reduction of non-military spending to the irreducible minimum."

June 25 and ending August 31. It will be divided into two periods, a six-weeks' session from June 25 to August 3, and a four-weeks' session from August 6 to August 31.

By attending the full ten weeks a student can earn a maximum of 15 quarter units, nine in the first session and six in the second. More than 200 courses will be offered in 20 departments.

Special features of the 1951 summer session will be a demonstration school for teacher training, a kindergarten-primary workshop, several courses in the field of creative dramatic work with children and a large number of courses in music and in physical education for women.

The new $550,000 addition to the women's gymnasium will be available for summer session courses for the first time. These will include classes in diving, swimming, water safety and a course in handling small craft with a canoe actually being used in the swimming pool for demonstration purposes.

Language Study Course Introduced

A new language course of study for primary grades and fourth grade has been introduced to teachers of the Campbell Union School District. The course of study, worked out by county wide teacher committees, replaces a similar course devised by teachers of the county several years ago.

DO YOU KNOW?

That, approximately 81 percent of all drivers NEVER have a serious accident? That, another 15 percent have only ONE? That, the remaining 4 percent of drivers account for 36 percent of ALL accidents?

March Of Dimes Shows Improvement; Total $1,258.44; Still Time To Give

The annual March of Dimes in the Campbell area took on a more hopeful future during the past week as donations, increasing steadily day by day, brought the total to date to $1,258.44, still less than the all time high of $81,460, raised last year, but lending hope that the community will push the returns to a new high by the February 15 closing.

George Egling, faculty advisor for Campbell High School students who are conducting the infantile paralysis fund drive, commented that the drive got off to a slow start, but has gained momentum each day. Mail returns from individuals have climbed to $323.84. More organizations and one business house sent in donations, including Campbell Theater, $34.45; Campbell Garden Club, $8.46, and Campbell Community Club, $25.

Moorpark School raised $54.46 for the drive to fight polio, and, at Campbell high school, three Tri-Y groups have conducted canvassing operations which contributed substantially toward the new total. These are Fidae, $29.48; Digna Phi, $44.82, and Jeune Fils, $38.80. Egling, speaking for the high school drive workers, praised the growing cooperation of the community in this drive to raise an even greater amount this year to care for polio victims and to carry on research in the field.

If the community continues to support the March of Dimes, he said, "we have fond hopes of even surpassing last year's total which was the highest in local history." Still to be tallied at the end of the drive are the coin collectors on
